Time—"Marching Through Georgia."

1 ABORIGINAL INHABITANTS.

Ours is a nation with a history short but grand.
Mound Builders first, but ruins left, to tell they had the land.
The Indians next o'er wood and plain roamed fierce on every hand,
Now crowded to the West by the white man.

2 NORSE EXPLORERS.

They were, of whites, the first who sailed across the sea
New England's coast saw he.
In '7, Karlsefne:

3 OF THE TIMES.

Not to be haunted by ghosts!
The luck of Europe's coast,
We see, the compass guiding their course,
By the loss and the information.

4 VOYAGES OF COLUMBUS.

First from Spain Columbus came in 1492.
'93 and '98, and 1503;
South America, Darien, West Indies first did see,
Died 1506, neglected, in poverty!

5 SPANISH EXPLORERS.

Vespucius came and gained a name Columbus richly earned;
Saw, '99, Guiana's coast and praising it returned.
DeLeon, 1512, went North, found Florida, but learned
No Fountain of Youth; felt, '21, death's arrow.

6 SPANISH EXPLORERS.

Balboa'd seen, 1513, the great Pacific's shore;
Cordova, 1517, did Yucatan explore,
Grijalva's ships traced Mexico in '18, we are told,
Magellan's ship, first round the world, in '22.

7 SPANISH EXPLORERS.

De Ayllon, 1520, stole red slaves, Carolina's coast;
Cortez next year won Mexico, got wealth and fame to boast;
And 28's Narvaez's date sought Florid's gold his host,
Lost all except four men, who crossed the continent.

8 SPANISH EXPLORERS.

In '32, for rich Peru, Pizarro sailed away;
In '39, De Soto's men coursed Florida so gay;
Found Mississippi '41, next year beneath it lay;
—A few heart-broken ones at last reached Mexico.

9 SPANISH EXPLORERS.

In '41 Alarcon's men sailed up the Colorado;
And Coronado in same year explored New Mexico;
In '42 our Western coast was traced by Cabrillo;
Espejo founded Santa Fe in '82.

10 SPANISH SETTLEMENTS.

These men were all Spanish, their settlements all grew,
Lyti, 1493; Darien in 1500; Santa Fe, 1581;
Augustine, '65; Santa Fe, 1581;
In 1598, the first of the Texas.

11 OUTCOME.

Oh! Hurrah! The Spaniards and the Main,
And, too bad, they killed, lived, for gain!
So they lost vast Empires, only the bones remain,
While the English are leading the nations.

12 PORTUGUESE EXPLORERS.

From Portugal, 1498, Da Gama led the way
To India, by water, round the Cape of Good Hope, gray.
In 1501 Cortereal came, stole slaves near Hudson Bay.
Brazil was found by Cabral, 1500.

13 DUTCH EXPLORERS.

The Dutch sent Hendrick Hudson in 1609;
On "Half Moon" traced our Eastern coast, found Hudson River fine.
Came back in '10, left by his men to die on Hudson's brine.
Block traced Long Island; May, New Jersey, '14.

14 FRENCH EXPLORERS.

The French sent Verrazzani in 1524,
Who sailed a thousand miles along our grand Atlantic shore.
Sent Cartier in '34-5, who traced St. Lawrence o'er.
Champlain in 1609 found bright Lake Champlain.

15 FRENCH JESUIT EXPLORERS

They found the Great Lakes found by 1664.
Marquette and Joliet, '64, down Mississippi bore.
By Hennepin St. Anthony's; La Salle to Gulf explore.
Thence '84 brought a colony, killed in Texas.

16 FRENCH SETTLEMENTS—(FAILURES.)

At Quebec, 1542, Cartier's French rogues froze out;
In '62 French Huguenots Port Royal left in doubt;
In '64 try St. John's shore, by Spaniards hanged to rot;
In '67 came De Gourges' avengers.

Discovered North America from Labrador to Devon.
And Cabot's son, in '98, outsailed his father even,—
Twenty-six years ahead of Verazzani.

19 ENGLISH EXPLORERS.

Profisher tried North-West route, 1576-7-8,
While Giles tried Newfoundland tried; was drowned in '78.
Drake second, the world, grew rich at stealing Spanish freight.
Spent winter of '79 in San Francisco.

20 ENGLISH EXPLORERS.

In 1602 Bartholomew took N. E. sassafras back,
And next year Pring did the same thing and followed the same track.
There Weymouth, '5, and Hunt, '14, stole Indians, 'tis a fact.
John Smith in '14, mapped and named New England.

21 GREAT EXPLORERS.

Hurrah! for Chris, John, Vasco, and Ferd's crew!
Brought West, North, South, The East, and World to view,
In 1492-7-8, and 1522,
Thus linking all earth's shores by commerce.

22 ENGLISH SETTLEMENTS—(FAILURE.)

Raleigh spent 200,000 trying to settle Roanoke,
Sent Amidas Barlow, '84, Lane, Greenville, '85.
Went home with Drake in '86, sent W. in '87.
